Memphis Hospital Medical College

We are glad to learn that the commendable interprise of establishing a medical college in this city is assuming a good shape, and is being pushed forward rapidly. A few energetic members of the medical profession of our city took the matter in hand some two months ago, and by their industry and en-ergy they have succeeded in raising the rebuilding. They hope to be able during the present week to secure an additional sum sufficient to purchase a suitable museum and apparatus for laboratories, etc. The above to the State prison, is expressly excepted, and | port of our business men and capitalists, and they should give the gentlemen who have the affair in charge all the encouragemen necessary.
